II.—COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

Rates of postage.

1. The rates of postage on letters to the colonies and foreign countries will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, pages 54 to 73.

Prepayment in some cases compulsory.

2. To some countries prepayment of the postage is compulsory. Where this is the case, the fact is indicated in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postage by the letter "c" prefixed to the rates of postage; prepayment being in all other cases optional.

Postage cannot in all cases be wholly prepaid.

3. To some countries the whole of the postage cannot be prepaid; and where this is the case, the letter "a" is prefixed to the rates in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, to indicate that an additional charge is levied on delivery.

Treatment of insufficiently paid letters: if prepayment is compulsory

4. A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, directed to go by a route by which prepayment is compulsory, is sent to the Returned Letter Office, to go back to the writer, unless there is another route by which prepayment is not required; in which case the letter is sent by the latter route. Letters, however, for Australia and New Zealand, if prepaid as much as one rate (even though the prepayment be insufficient), are not detained, but are forwarded charged with the deficient postage and an additional rate.

Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, &c. be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, &c., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, &c. must not be sent as a separate packet.

† It is the duty of Postmasters, whenever they have ground for suspecting an infringement of any of the above conditions, and occasionally, even when there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine book-packets posted at, or passing through, their office.

of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination;* otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet.

6. No book-packet may be above 5 lbs. in weight, nor above one foot six inches in length, nine inches in width, or six inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from one of the Government offices. Weight and dimensions.

7. When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, book-packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery. May be kept back.

VI.—ABUSE OF THE BOOK POST.

It seems to be but imperfectly understood, that there is no legal way of sending a letter, other than a Circular Letter, through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a post card.

A notion appears to prevail that, because a post card, which is open to inspection, may have a letter written or printed upon it, any card whatever, and even any piece of paper, if only it be placed in an open wrapper, may be sent through the post with a letter written or printed upon it for a postage of a halfpenny.

It seems necessary, therefore, to explain for the guidance of the public—

1. That the letter rate of postage must be prepaid for any communication of the nature of a letter, whether it be placed in a closed envelope or in an open cover, unless a post card be used for the purpose, or unless the letter be a circular letter,—i.e., a letter having internal evidence that it is intended for transmission, in identical terms, to several persons, and the whole or greater part of which is printed, engraved, or lithographed.
2. That cards having merely a halfpenny adhesive stamp affixed to them must not bear any communication of the nature of a letter, unless it be a circular letter.

Large numbers of letters, not being circular letters, are from time to time found in halfpenny wrappers, contrary to the express provisions of the book post; and, as the officers of the department are instructed to surcharge all such letters with additional postage, it will save not only trouble to the Post Office but annoyance to the public, if care be taken always to pay letter postage for letters other than circular letters, unless they be written or printed on post cards.

VII.—COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

1. The rates of postage on book-packets to the colonies and foreign countries are given in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage, pages 54 to 73. Rates of postage.

2. Every book-packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise) or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet. Must be open at both ends.

* In order to secure the return of book-packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From ——— of ———."

Dimensions. 3. The limit of size for a book-packet addressed to any place abroad is 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth. For limitation of weight see footnote at pages 54 to 73.

What a book-packet may contain. 4. Whatever is allowed under Rule 3 (first paragraph), Section V., to be sent in an inland book-packet may be sent in a book-packet to places abroad, except that water-colour drawings are not allowed to be sent in a book-packet to France or Algeria.

No writing or manuscript mark, however, beyond the name and address of the person to whom it is sent is admissible in or upon a packet forwarded viâ France to the Argentine Confederation, Bolivia, Chili, Cuba, Ecuador, Hayti, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, Porto Rico, St. Thomas, Uruguay, United States of Colombia, or Venezuela.

VIII.—COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

Colonial and Foreign Pattern and Sample Post. 1. There is a Pattern and Sample Post to such colonies and foreign countries as are marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postage with the letter "P"; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible.

Rate of postage. 2. The rates of postage are the same as for Book Packets.

Must be easy of examination. 3. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination.* But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind,—but such articles only,—may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen, or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened; or, in the case of samples of seeds, &c., for the United States of America, Holland and its possessions, Belgium, Denmark, Greece, Portugal and its possessions, and Switzerland in bags entirely closed, provided such closed bags are transparent, so as to enable the Officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

No writing allowed. 4. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles.

Must not be of intrinsic value. 5. Samples of intrinsic value must not be sent to any foreign country; and in the case of France, samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron, carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule, if they weigh more than three ounces; and up to this weight raw and spun silk, as well as coloured and twisted silk, may be sent to Germany.

Dangerous and prohibited articles. 6. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the Officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad, except France and countries viâ France. Indigo cannot be sent to any place abroad.

Weight. 7. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars see footnote at pages 54 to 73.

Dimensions. 8. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place abroad must not exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in width or depth.

* In order to secure the return of Pattern packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From ——— of ———."

2. The official "stout" Post Cards are sold at the rate of 8*d.* for 12 cards, or 4*d.* for six cards. The "thin" cards are sold at the rate of 7*d.* for 12 cards, or 3½*d.* for six cards. Neither the "stout" nor the "thin" cards are sold singly.

Nothing to be written on front.

3. The front (or stamped) side is intended for the address only, in addition to the printed words "Post Card" and "The address only to be written "on this side." There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any one of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1*d.* on delivery. Must not be cut, &c.

May be kept back.

4. When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, Post Cards (unless paid for and posted as late letters) may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

Stamp to be impressed.

5. No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card impressed with a halfpenny stamp at the Office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, or at the Stamp Offices at Liverpool and Newcastle-on-Tyne, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a written communication of the nature of a letter.

Private cards.

6. For information as to the conditions under which private cards are impressed with a halfpenny stamp, application must be made to the Office o. Inland Revenue.

XI.—FOREIGN CARD POST.

Foreign Post Cards with an impressed stamp of 1¼*d.* each are sold at that rate. Such cards may be sent without extra charge to the countries comprised in the General Postal Union, with the exception of British India and the French Colonies. Cards sent to the French Colonies are liable to additional postage,—vide Column G. in Appendix B.

There is no Card Post to British India.

SPECIAL RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

XII.—ADDRESSES TO THE QUEEN AND PETITIONS TO PARLIAMENT.

Exemptions from postage.

1. Petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, forwarded direct, are exempt from postage; and such petitions and addresses, as also petitions to either House of Parliament, if sent to a Member of either House, are likewise exempt, provided they do not weigh more than two pounds, and are either without covers or are in covers open at the ends. No letter or other enclosure, however, must be inserted; and if one be found, such enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, will be charged as an unpaid letter.

No limit of size.

2. The restriction laid down as to the size of letters does not apply to petitions or addresses to the Queen, whether directed to Her Majesty, or forwarded to any Member of either House of Parliament; nor to Petitions to either House of Parliament, forwarded to any Member of either House.

XIII.—PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

1. Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the rate of one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of that weight.

2. The words "Parliamentary Proceedings" must be written or printed on the cover of the packet; otherwise it will be treated as an ordinary book packet.

Prepayment optional.

3. Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and if it be made in part, the simple difference only will be charged.

Parliamentary Proceedings, &c. sent abroad.

4. Parliamentary Proceedings may be sent, under the Book Post privilege, to all the Colonies, and to those Foreign States between which and this country there is a book post.

No limit of size.

5. The limit of size prescribed for ordinary book packets does not apply to printed Parliamentary Proceedings.

XIV.—PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

1. The words "Parliamentary Notice" must be legibly printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such parliamentary notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this is not imperative. Mode of address.

2. These notices may be posted at any Post Office in the United Kingdom at which Money Order business is transacted. Where to be posted.

3. All notices which by the standing orders of either House of Parliament are required to be served on or before the 15th December must be posted not later than the 12th December, unless the 12th fall on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; and those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted at least three clear days before the time specified in the standing orders. Dates of posting.

4. The postage chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of sixpence on each, must be prepaid by stamps. Must be prepaid and registered.

5. The notices must be posted at the Post Office window, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses, the notices being arranged, for the convenience of comparison, in the order of the list. These lists will be examined by the officer in attendance at the window; and if they correspond with the addresses he will sign and stamp every sheet of each list. One of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London. Must be accompanied with lists in duplicate.

6. The hours for receiving such notices are the same as those for the registration of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the Postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Hours of posting.

7. Re-directed parliamentary notices are, like letters, liable to an additional rate of postage. Re-directed notices.

8. The senders of parliamentary notices should, if possible, arrange on the previous day, with the Postmaster, as to the most convenient time for posting them, and state the probable number. Arrangements with Postmasters.

XV.—NOTICES RELATING TO VOTING FOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, BALLOT PAPERS, AND JURY SUMMONSES.

1. Notices relating to votes for Members of Parliament, belonging to any of the classes enumerated in the Acts 6 Vict. c. 18. and 13 & 14 Vict. c. 69., can also be sent through the post (with the securities for their safe delivery enjoined by the Acts) on prepayment, in stamps, of the postage at the letter rate —whether Inland or Foreign, as the case may be—and of a registration fee of twopence, provided they be presented, duly directed, open and in duplicate, to the Postmaster of an office which is also a Money Order Office.* On receiving the notices, the Postmaster will compare each with its duplicate, and if the two agree, the latter will be stamped and returned to the bearer. The notices must be presented at least half an hour before the fixed times for posting ordinary letters. Notices to voters. Postage and registration fee must be prepaid.

* The posting of these notices and of Jury Summonses is confined strictly to Post Offices where Money Order business is transacted; consequently, whenever such business is suspended at any office none of these notices can there be received.

Where and how to be posted.

2. The production by the person who posted a notice of the stamped duplicate is evidence of the notice having been given to the person at the place mentioned, on the day on which such notice would, in the ordinary course of post, have been delivered there.

Re-directed notices.

3. They are liable to the usual charge for re-direction.

Ballot papers.

4. When ballot papers are presented by any returning officer to be forwarded by post, the Postmaster is required to give to such officer an acknowledgment in writing of his having received them, stating the time of receipt.

Prepayment optional.

5. The prepayment of the postage on ballot papers is optional.

Jury Summonses.

6. Jury Summonses may, in England and Wales, be sent through the post under the following regulations :—

Where and how to be posted.

3rd. They must be posted at those Offices only which are Money Order Offices, and each must be accompanied with a duplicate endorsed with the name and address of the person to whom the original summons is directed. On receiving them the Postmaster compares their addresses with those of the duplicates, and on being satisfied that they are alike, he forwards the originals in the usual course of post (but not as registered letters), returning the duplicates to the person who brought them, duly marked with the Stamp of the Office.

Hours which posted.

4th. These Summonses are received within such hours as may be previously agreed upon between the Sheriff or other proper Officer and the Postmaster, and which must be so arranged as not to interfere with the current duties of the Office.

XVI.—LETTERS FOR NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND SEAMEN IN HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

Rates of postage.

1. Non-commissioned officers, bandmasters, army schoolmasters (if not superintending schoolmasters or schoolmasters of the 1st class), schoolmistresses, private soldiers, or seamen belonging to Her Majesty's Ships, whether serving on sea or land, and whether in a British Possession or Foreign Country, as also enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive letters by Packet or Man-of-War, for a postage of 1*d.*; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus the postage to the undermentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

3. If the letter be posted within the United Kingdom, the penny must be prepaid, as must any foreign postage that may be chargeable; and if sent by a private ship, the gratuity of one penny to the captain must also be prepaid. If posted abroad, prepayment is not compulsory, but if the letter be sent unpaid, it is on delivery charged twopence, together with any foreign postage or gratuity to a sea captain that may be due.

4. The letter must not weigh more than half an ounce. Weight.

5. It must relate entirely to the private concerns of the soldier or seaman.

6. The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction; and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship, or regiment, corps, or detachment to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. XVII.—LETTERS FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

1. Letters for passengers on board the Cunard and Inman packets for America touching at Queenstown, or on board the Mediterranean packets about to sail from Southampton or Brindisi with the mails for India, Australia, China, &c., may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received. They must be registered, and the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the commander of the packet. Must be registered.

2. Letters for passengers on board the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry, may, under similar conditions, be posted up to the same time as ordinary registered letters for Canada. These must be addressed to the care of the officer in charge of the mails.

3. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. ————, on board the mail packet for ————, at Queenstown [Londonderry, Brindisi, or Southampton]. Care of the Officer in charge of the mails," or "care of the Commander of the packet;" as the case may be. Mode of address.

4. Letters directed to the care of the Packet Agent at Suez, and despatched by the mail viâ Brindisi, will probably reach passengers for India, &c. who have sailed in the packet which left Southampton the previous week. Letters for passengers to India.

XVIII.—LETTERS, &c. BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Rates of postage.

1. Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a Private Ship is as follows:—

3. Book Packets and Packets of Patterns may be sent by Private Ship, for the same postage as by Mail Packets, to all places to which there are Mail Packets.

4. Newspapers by Private Ships to the Cape de Verd Islands, must be repaid 2*d.* each per 4 oz.; and to all other places 1*d.* each per 4 oz.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, &c.

XIX.—MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, &c. must be prepaid in stamps.

1. Inland letters, newspapers, and book-packets cannot be prepaid in money, but must be prepaid by means of stamps, either adhesive or embossed or impressed. This rule applies also to registered letters.

Exceptions.—At the Chief and District Post Offices and at the Charing Cross and Lombard Street Post Offices in London, as well as at the Head Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, letters and book-packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be never less than 1*l.*, and that the letters and book packets be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5*s.* each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

Foreign letters, newspapers, &c. must be prepaid in stamps.

2. Letters to places abroad must be prepaid wholly in stamps. This rule applies also to registered letters.

3. Newspapers, book-packets, and sample-packets for places abroad can also be prepaid only by means of stamps; and in their case prepayment is always compulsory.

British stamps not available abroad.

4. British postage stamps, though available for all letters, &c. going out of this country, are not, as a general rule, available for letters, &c. coming into it; the principal exception being in the case of letters posted by naval officers, marines, and seamen serving abroad, which, if posted in the ship's bag, must be prepaid by means of British postage stamps.

XX.—REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

1. The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book-packet passing between any two places in the United Kingdom is fourpence. Fee for inland registration.

2. The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad will be found in the column headed "Registration fee" in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postage. To some countries, as shown in that Table, a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival; it being left, in those cases, to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. To a few countries, as also shown in the Table, there is no arrangement whatever for registration. Fee for foreign registration.

3. Registration is applicable equally to letters, newspapers, book-packets, and patterns addressed to places abroad.

4. No letter or other postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered; nor can any letter be accepted for registration, unless the enclosure be securely placed so as not to move about, and be covered by a proper and well-fastened envelope. Initials, &c. not allowed, and contents must be secured.

5. Registered letters, &c. must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only. Prepayment compulsory.

6. Every letter to be registered should be presented at the counter, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter-box it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom or the British Colonies, be liable to a registration fee of 8*d*., instead of the ordinary fee of 4*d*. How to register.

7. At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered letters on the payment of the ordinary fee is entered in the notice exhibited in the Office window; but, upon payment of a late fee of fourpence, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, at the Metropolitan Chief Offices, at the London District Offices (including the Lombard Street and Charing Cross Offices), and at all provincial Head Offices, letters, whether inland, foreign, or colonial, may be registered after the hours specified, until the closing of the letter-box for each despatch (exclusive of the time during which late letters are received), or until the office is closed for the night. Latest time for registering.

8. The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, inasmuch as, under ordinary circumstances, a registered packet can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if the packet be registered; as the machinery of the Department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. By law, the Post Office is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered packets; though any officer who may neglect his duty on this point will be called to strict account. Sent in unregistered letters, valuable articles are exposed to risk, and offer a temptation which ought not to be created; and the Department cannot in any way undertake the safe conveyance of such packets. All inland or colonial letters, therefore, which contain coin, and all inland letters which contain watches or jewellery, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the Mail for which they are posted are detained for the next despatch. Even if the letter do not contain any article of intrinsic value, it should, if it be very important, be registered. Security from registration. Post Office not responsible. Coin letters.

9. No Letter Carrier, Rural Messenger, or other servant of the Post Office is allowed to carry a letter for any person to be registered. Letter Carriers.

XXI.—RE-DIRECTION.

Re-directed letters, &c. liable to a second postage.

1. Every inland re-directed letter, post-card, or other postal packet is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, or Sub-Office, or Rural walk, and the re-direction be made by an Officer of the Post Office. Thus, on a paid or unpaid letter not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, re-directed, either by an Officer of the Post Office, or by any one else, to a different delivery, an additional postage is levied of one penny; and if the weight be more than 1 oz., but less than 2 oz., of three halfpence, and so on.

2. An inland registered letter, when re-directed to any place within the United Kingdom, is only liable to the same additional charge as an ordinary letter.

3. Letters, &c., received from a country of the General Postal Union, and afterwards re-directed to any place in the United Kingdom or to another country within the Union, are not liable to any additional charge, nor, if registered, to an additional fee for registration; such, however, as have been in the first instance addressed to a place in the country where they were posted, are chargeable on re-direction with the inland rate of the country to which they are re-directed, but, if registered, without additional fee.

4. Letters, &c. addressed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and then re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Colonial or Foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee for registration.

5. Letters, &c., received here from a country not in the Postal Union, and re-directed to another country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Colonial or Foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee: if re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable to an additional inland rate; and, if re-directed to any country of the Postal Union, they are liable to the inland rate of that country. In the two latter cases, the letters, if registered, are not liable to any additional fee.

6. Letters, &c., received from any country of the Postal Union, and re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Colonial or Foreign rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee.

7. If a registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it is surcharged with a fresh registration fee of fourpence.

Exceptions.—No charge for re-direction is made on Government letters; nor is any charge for re-direction made on newspapers from any place abroad, unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Further: Letters addressed to commissioned officers in the army, navy, or ordnance, or (provided they do not exceed ½ oz. in weight) to schoolmasters or schoolmistresses in the army, or non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, and who, before receiving the letters, may have started on their return home or to another station, may be re-directed to such officers, private soldiers, or seamen, &c., when these have removed upon service, and will be delivered to them without any charge for re-direction. The same privilege extends to the letters of non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters in the army (of all but the first class), schoolmistresses in the army, private soldiers, and seamen, (but to these only), re-directed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, or from the United Kingdom to a place abroad, provided the original postage is prepaid and the letters do not exceed half an ounce in weight.

8. Notices of removal and applications for letters to be re-directed must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. In London printed forms of notice can be obtained at any Head District or Branch Office, or from the Letter Carrier of the walk; and when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster of the district or to the Letter Carrier; but owing to the frequent removals which take place in the Metropolitan district, it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. Notices of removal.

9. A Postmaster is not bound to re-direct letters for a person temporarily leaving his home, and not having a private bag or box, unless the house be left uninhabited. Postmasters not always bound to re-direct letters.

XXII.—DELIVERY.

1. Letter Carriers and Rural Messengers are prohibited from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office, whether before beginning their rounds, whilst on their rounds, or after they have completed them. Nor are they allowed to receive any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of any letter, &c.; nor to deviate from the route laid down for them. The prohibition from receiving payment in addition to the postage does not, however, extend to Christmas boxes. What letters, &c. must not be delivered. No extra payment allowed except Christmas Boxes.

2. No person living within the town free delivery, or within the limits of a rural post free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can claim to have his letters delivered at the office window if a delivery by Letter Carrier or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters which arrive by a mail, after which there is no immediate delivery by Letter Carrier or Messenger, may be obtained by any person on application at the office window, so long as the office is open for delivery. Delivery at window.

3. In order to prevent the additional trouble which is sometimes caused by letters being directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, a Postmaster is authorised, when such letters arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, to refuse to deliver them at the window (even though initials may have been substituted for the full name), and to send them out by the Letter Carriers; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks. Postmaster may refuse to deliver at window.

4. Any person can have a private box who is willing to pay the appointed fee. Where this fee goes to the Revenue, it is generally fixed at one guinea per annum, to be paid in advance, and for a period of not less than a year; and the Postmaster, where it goes to him, may demand the same terms, though he may, at his option, take less. The same also, in most cases, are the terms for a private bag; except that, in addition, there is the cost of the bag itself, and a charge for conveyance, the maximum of the latter being half a guinea per annum, if the bag be conveyed by a Rural Messenger, and two guineas if by a contractor either for a mail cart or for a horse post, not being a regular servant of the Department. If more than one Rural Messenger or more than one contractor take part in the conveyance of a private letter bag, each is allowed to charge the full amount of the fee for his service. The weight of a private bag, when empty, is limited to one pound. As the service of private bags may possibly delay the despatch of the general bag, none are allowed without the permission of the Surveyor. If a private letter bag made up at one Post Office be left at another to be called for or to be delivered from thence, the Postmaster at such other office may make a charge for his trouble; which charge is usually 5*s*. per annum. Any person residing within the limits of a town free delivery, and renting a private letter bag, is considered to have the accommodation of a private box at the Post Office as well as a bag, and is liable to the full charge for both box and bag. Private boxes and bags in the country.

XXIII.—POSTAGE STAMPS.

Postage stamps, &c. must be kept for sale.

1. Every Head Postmaster is required to keep, for sale to the public, a sufficient stock of the different postage stamps in use, as also envelopes bearing an embossed penny stamp, newspaper wrappers bearing an impressed halfpenny stamp, and Post Cards both Inland and Foreign. The stamps are of the respective values of ½*d*., 1*d*., 1½*d*., 2*d*., 2½*d*., 3*d*., 4*d*., 6*d*., 9*d*., 10*d*., 1*s*., 2*s*., and 5*s*. The embossed envelopes, which are made of four sizes, viz., 4¾ ins. × 3$\frac{11}{16}$ ins. (square shape), 4¾ ins. × 2¾ ins., 5¼ ins. × 3 ins., and 5¼ ins. × 3⅝ ins., are sold at the following prices:—

Size, 4¾ ins. by 3$\frac{11}{16}$ ins. (Square shape.)		Other Sizes.
1 - 1¼*d*.	6 - 0*s*. 6¾*d*.	1 - 1¼*d*.	6 - 0*s*. 6½*d*.
2 - 2¼*d*.	8 - 0*s*. 9*d*.	2 - 2¼*d*.	8 - 0*s*. 8¾*d*.
3 - 3½*d*.	12 - 1*s*. 1½*d*.	3 - 3¼*d*.	12 - 1*s*. 1*d*.
4 - 4½*d*.	24 - 2*s*. 3*d*.	4 - 4½*d*.	24 - 2*s*. 2*d*.

The newspaper wrappers and the Inland Post Cards are not sold singly. The wrappers are sold in packets of 12 for 6½*d*. The "stout" Post Cards are sold at the rate of 8*d*. for 12 cards, or 4*d*. for six cards, the "thin" cards at the rate of 7*d*. for 12 cards, or 3½*d*. for six cards. Foreign Post Cards are sold at the rate of 1¼ each.

What Sub-postmasters must keep.

2. Sub-postmasters are required to keep halfpenny and penny stamps and Post Cards only; but they are bound, on application, to procure any stamps of other values, embossed envelopes, or newspaper wrappers.

Rural Messengers may sell Postage Stamps.

3. Every Rural Messenger is authorised to sell penny postage stamps at the usual price of 1*d*. each; and when any person applies to him for postage stamps the Messenger must either supply them, or (if he have none in his possession) must, without extra charge, receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office, obtain postage stamps for the amount, and affix them carefully to the letters.

Stamps which cannot be used for postage.

4. Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been torn, cut, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed, or impressed, stamps cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers, on which such stamps were embossed or impressed (even although the stamps have not been before used or sent by post), or of receipt or other Inland Revenue stamps.

Spoilt stamps.

Applications for allowance on spoilt postage stamps, embossed envelopes, post cards, or newspaper wrappers, which have not passed through the post, should be made to the Office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London. In the case of envelopes, cards, or wrappers, the applications must be accompanied by these articles intact; as no allowance can be granted on the embossed, or impressed, stamps if cut therefrom.

Stamps purchased from public.

5. To discourage the transmission of coin by post all Postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose Offices Money Order business is transacted, and all Letter Receivers in the London District, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the payments are as follows:—

For stamps not exceeding 1*s*. 8*d*. in value, the full price minus ½*d*.
„ above 1*s*. 8*d*., but not exceeding 3*s*. 4*d*., the full price minus 1*d*.
„ „ 3*s*. 4*d*., „ „ 5*s*. „ „ 1½*d*.
„ „ 5*s*., „ „ 6*s*. 8*d*., „ „ 2*d*.
„ „ 6*s*. 8*d*., „ „ 8*s*. 4*d*., „ „ 2½*d*. and so on.

Must be in strips.

Safeguard against theft.

6. In order to prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, no separate stamps can be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips containing at least two stamps adhering to each other.

7. In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various Firms that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended either that the name of Firms, &c. be printed on the back of the stamps (by arrangement with the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House), or the initials perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose; so that, the sale of such stamps being thereby rendered difficult (Postmasters having been instructed not to purchase any of them) there may be little or no temptation to steal them.

8. Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office. Paper may be impressed with postage stamps.

9. Applications from persons in London, not in the service of the Post Office, for licenses to sell postage stamps should be made to the Office of Inland Revenue. Residents in the provinces should apply to the Stamp Distributor of the District. License to sell Stamps.

XXIV.—ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

1. It is forbidden to forward by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character. Anything posted contrary to this prohibition will be stopped and sent up to the Returned Letter Office, London. Nothing indecent or libellous may be sent.

2. Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag, or to do bodily harm to any officer of the Post Office. If such a packet be posted without the Postmaster's knowledge, or if at any time before its despatch he should discover any such packet, he is directed not to forward it, but to report the case, with the address of the packet, to the Secretary. The following are examples of the articles referred to: Nothing dangerous may be sent.

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, or vegetables; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything which is explosive or liable to sudden combustion; razors, scissors, needles, forks, or other sharp instruments are also forbidden, except when sent in packets of samples to the foreign countries mentioned in Rule 6, Section VII.

3. According to the regulations of Germany, no letter exceeding 250 grammes in weight (a little more than 8½ oz.), can, if containing any other enclosure than paper, be allowed to circulate by the post. Any such letters, therefore, forwarded in the Mail to Germany, will be liable, on their arrival at the German frontier, to be stopped, and sent to the Custom House for delivery as freight. Letters for Germany.

4. The transmission of letters containing gold or silver money, jewels, or precious articles, or anything liable to Customs duties, through the post to any country of the General Postal Union is prohibited. The laws of Costa Rica and Peru also forbid the transmission by the post within those countries of letters or other packets containing coin, watches, jewelry, or other articles of value which are liable to Customs duties; and any such packets if forwarded are liable to confiscation. Packets containing jewelry or other articles of value for the Cape of Good Hope, Canada, Queensland, or Victoria (Australia) are liable to be detained and not delivered to the addresses until the Customs duties have been paid. Coin, jewelry, &c. for places abroad.

XXV.—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Post Office is not, by law, responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter, book, or other postal packet (even if the packet be registered, see Section XX., page 17); nor is the Post Office responsible for any injury which a packet may sustain during its transmission. Post Office not responsible for losses through failure, &c.; nor for injuries to books, &c.

Packets should be well guarded.

2. To guard against such injury all postal packets which are likely to suffer from stamping or from great pressure should be placed in strong covers; and even with this precaution no fragile article should be sent through the Post. It should be remembered that every packet has to be handled several times; that it is exposed to considerable pressure and friction in the mail bag; and that, whenever the bag has in the course of its transmission to be transferred by means of the railway apparatus. the risk of injury is much increased.

Official information.

3. No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a Post Office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public. A Postmaster may, however, give an address if he has no reason to believe that the person whose address it is would disapprove of his doing so.

Applications for postal information.

4. Provision having been made, by means of the British Postal Guide (with local Postal Guides in large towns) and the Postal Official Circular, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to Postmasters and other officers of the department. When information is asked for, the application should be in writing and addressed to the Secretary of the Post Office, as Postmasters are not required to correspond with the public on official matters. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Department does not hold itself responsible.

Post Office not responsible for error in verbal replies.

Letters when once posted cannot be returned.

5. Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Change and bad money.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters not bound to weigh letters.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

Attempted deception as to place of posting.

8. If a letter be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words "posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster "of ———."

Addresses should be legible and complete.

9. Every address should be legible and complete. When a letter is sent to a Post Town the last word in the address should be the name of that town, except when the town is but little known, or when there are two Post Towns of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with or very like the name of some foreign town or country. In such cases the name of the county should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Newport in Monmouthshire should be—

"Newport, Monmouthshire."

Name of Post Town or county should be given.

10. When a letter is sent to a place where there is only a Sub-office, the name of the Head Office should be given, unless the office is either a Railway Sub-office or one of the Sub-offices referred to at par. 3, page 74. (For the mode of address in such cases, see the paragraph quoted.) Letters posted in one part of the United Kingdom and intended for another (as, for example, letters posted in England and intended for Scotland) should have the name of the country to which they are sent added to the address, unless the letters be intended for either London, Edinburgh, Dublin, or other very large town; when such addition is unnecessary.

Number of house.

11. The number, too, of the house should appear; its omission being a cause of delay in the sorting; and tending to retard the general delivery. In the case of letters for places abroad the name of the country as well as the town should be given, in full, and should be the last word in the address.

Attention to this latter precaution will often assist in deciphering the name of a town, and prevent the letter from being mis-sent when there are towns of the same name in different countries. For example: a letter intended for London in Western Canada, but simply addressed "London, W.C.," would be forwarded to the Western Central District of the Metropolis in England. Name of foreign country.

12. Letters for well-known firms and persons in London are sometimes addressed "London" only; but this practice often causes delay in their delivery. Letters for strangers or for persons whose address is not known at the Chief Office, simply addressed "London," (and not "Post Office," or "Poste Restante, London,") are not delivered from the Poste Restante, but are sent to the Returned Letter Office. Letters addressed "London" only.

13. A letter addressed to a Post Office to be called for is retained one month; and, if not called for by the end of that time, is sent to the Returned Letter Office to go back to the writer. But if the letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept three months. Letters to be called for at Provincial Offices.

14. All letters addressed to Club Houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it has become evident that they will not be called for. In the London District such letters should, under ordinary circumstances, be returned to the Letter Carriers within a month of their delivery. Letters to be called for at clubs, hotels, &c.

15. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found. A much larger portion of the undelivered letters could be returned if the names and addresses of the senders were always either fully and plainly written inside or embossed on the envelopes. Letters should contain full address of writer.

16. In London, letters which cannot, for any reason, be delivered are, as soon as they have been properly tried, sent to the Returned Letter Office. Treatment of undelivered letters.

17. In the country, when an inland letter is refused, it is retained by the Postmaster for one day before being sent to the Returned Letter Office; unless the refusal be conditional, in which case the letter is kept for three days, as are all colonial or foreign letters when refused, and letters, whether inland or foreign, addressed to persons not known, or gone away. But when the reason for the non-delivery of a letter, &c. is that the person to whom it is addressed is dead, the letter is sent, as soon as practicable, to the Returned Letter Office; as are all letters intended for ships which have sailed before the arrival of such letters at the port of departure.

18. On reaching the Returned Letter Office, a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once opened, and if found to contain the writer's address is returned to him. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an article of value, the letter is destroyed. After being retained for periods varying from one week to two months, colonial and foreign letters are, with few exceptions, returned unopened to the country from which they were received. How disposed of in Returned Letter Office.

19. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house-door. Letter-boxes should be provided.

20. All letters, &c. should be posted as early in the day as practicable, especially when sent in large numbers, as is frequently the case with newspapers and circulars, and care should always be taken to see that the packet falls into the letter-box, and does not stick in its passage. Much trouble is saved to the office if circulars, before being posted, are tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction. Correspondence posted early in the day, not only obtains in many cases the advantage of an earlier delivery, but frequently avoids the risk of delay from irregularity in the working of the trains. Letters, circulars, &c. should be posted as early in the day as practicable.

21. When several letters are sent by the same person for registration they should be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to Registered letters to be accompanied by lists in duplicate. be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer. This practice (which is adopted by many bankers) saves time both to the public and to the department.

Where to affix the stamps. 22. Stamps should be placed on the front, that is, on the address side of the letter, and upon the right hand upper corner. On re-directed letters care should be taken not to place fresh stamps over those which have been previously used.

How to affix them. 23. In affixing the stamps, the corner of the envelope and the gummed side of the stamp should be slightly wetted, and then the stamp should be gently pressed till it is firmly fixed. The practice of dipping the stamp in water is objectionable; because, unless the stamp be immediately withdrawn, and care be taken, by the use of blotting paper or some other absorbent, to remove any excess of moisture, the gum may be washed off, or the stamp may be rubbed off the letter. By the use of envelopes bearing an embossed stamp (which can be obtained at any Post Office) all risk of the stamp being detached may be avoided.

Hot climates. 24. The practice of sealing letters passing to and from the East and West Indies, and other countries with hot climates, with wax (except such as is specially prepared), is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury, not only to the letters so sealed, but to the other letters in the mail, from the melting of the wax and adhesion of the letters to each other. The public are therefore recommended, in all such cases, to use either wafers or gum, and to advise their correspondents in the countries referred to, to do the same.

Letters supposed to be wrongly surcharged. 25. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to a post office to be weighed, and if it then appear that it does not turn the scale, should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged; though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a packet weighs more then than when it is delivered; and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge.

Complaints about missing letters, &c. 26. When complaint is made of a letter or other postal packet being lost, missent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter, &c. was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps.

Money, &c. 27. Neither money nor any other article of considerable value ought ever to be sent through the post, except by means of a money order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes, and may be the means of ultimately bringing some clerk or letter carrier to moral ruin. Every letter which contains money or other valuable article even when registered, ought to be securely sealed, and if there be postage stamps in it, these should be enclosed in paper thick enough to prevent their being seen or felt through the cover.

Bank notes. 28. Whenever bank notes are sent by post, even in registered letters, they should be cut in halves, and the second halves should not be posted till it has been ascertained that the first halves have been received; and further, in order to afford the means of identification, a memorandum should always be made of the number of each bank note.

Cheques. 28*a*. Care should be taken, when crossing cheques, to make the lines so distinct that they cannot be erased without betraying the erasure.

29. Except where the Surveyor may deem a longer interval necessary, late letters,* &c. are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mail; although no office is kept open merely for this purpose after ten o'clock at night. Late letters.

30. No late letters, &c. (except Government letters) are forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that by stamps, including both the ordinary postage and the late letter fee. The late fee payable upon post cards is the same as upon letters; but in the case of letters directed to any department of Government, it is sufficient to prepay the fee. Prepaid letters may, however, be handed to the sorters in the Travelling Post Offices on any of the lines of railway upon which such offices are run, on payment of an extra fee (in postage stamps) of 2*d.* on each letter. The times at which late letters can be posted at the Chief Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, the Branch Offices, the District Offices, Receiving Offices, and Pillar Boxes in London, are given at pages 130 to 174. Prepayment of late letters.

31. Every Postmaster is required to have a notice conspicuously placarded, giving information respecting the hours of attendance, the despatch and delivery of letters, &c. Notice of hours of attendance, &c.

32. At all offices which are open on Sunday the public are allowed, during the time they are open (viz. from 9 to 10 in the morning and one other hour), to prepay foreign and colonial letters, to purchase postage stamps, and to have letters registered. The hours at which telegraph business is attended to are, as a rule, from 8 to 10 A.M.; but no Money Order, Savings Bank, Insurance, or Annuity business is transacted on that day. Sunday.

33. At no provincial town in England or Ireland is there more than one delivery on Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday; nor, in Scotland on Sunday or the Sacramental Fast Days;† and any person is at liberty to prevent even this delivery, so far as relates to himself, as shown by the following regulations:—

1st. Any person can have his letters, &c. retained in the Post Office on Sunday by addressing to the Postmaster a written request, duly signed, to that effect; and such request will be held to include newspapers, and all other postal packets, even such as may be marked "immediate;" as no distinction can be allowed.

2nd. No letters, &c. the non-delivery of which by the Letter-carrier on Sunday has been directed, can be obtained from the Post Office window on that day.

3rd. Private box-holders have the option of applying for letters at the office while it is open for delivery on Sunday, or of abstaining from so doing, as they may think proper; but no person can be permitted to engage a private box for Sunday only.

4th. To prevent the inconvenience and confusion which would arise from frequent changes in these instructions, no request can be entertained unless it extend to a period of at least three months, nor be withdrawn, even after the lapse of that time, without a week's notice.

34. Any person conveying (otherwise than by the Post) a letter not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General incurs, by law, a penalty of £5 for every letter, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. The sender also is liable to a penalty of £5 for every letter. Penalties for sending letters otherwise than through the post.

35. The exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General is confined strictly to letters, and does not therefore extend to newspapers, books, or money; any of which may be legally conveyed by other means. The following kinds of letters also need not be sent through the Post:— Exceptions from exclusive privilege of Post Office in conveyance of letters.

1st. Letters sent by a private friend, to be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed;

* "Late Letters" are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

† The despatch from Sub-offices on Christmas Day and Good Friday is generally earlier than on other week days.

2nd. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof; commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a Court of Justice;

3rd. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet boat);

4th. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandize, or of the cargo or loading therein, sent by such vessels of merchandize, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise;

5th. Letters concerning goods or merchandize sent by common carriers, to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without hire or other advantage for receiving or delivering such letters;

36. No person, however, is authorised to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner above described.

Persons forbidden to carry letters.

37. The following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or collect or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive hire or reward for the same:

1st. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage coaches;

2nd. Owners, masters or commanders of ships, vessels, steam boats, or boats called or being passage or packet boats, sailing or passing coastwise, or otherwise between places within Great Britain or Ireland, or between, to, or from ports within Her Majesty's dominions or territories out of the United Kingdom, or their servants or agents, except in respect of letters of merchants, owners of ships, or goods on board;

3rd. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam boat, passage or packet boat;

4th. The owners of or sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other Her Majesty's dominions.

XXVI.—PREVALENT MISCONCEPTIONS.

Much time necessary in making alterations.

1. Complaint is sometimes made of delay in carrying into effect intended improvements. It should, however, be borne in mind that changes in machinery so extensive and intricate as that of the Post Office must be made cautiously, and with much previous consideration. The arrangements of the service, even in districts widely separated, are so much dependent upon each other, and economy of time (one of the first objects in all postal organization) requires that they should be so nicely adjusted, that no alteration can safely be made without completeness of preparation and a close examination of all its consequences; for as on the one hand experience proves that almost every improvement shows the way to further amendment, so, on the other, it will be found that an ill-considered change, though it may give a partial advantage in one quarter, generally leads to dislocation and confusion in others. This, of course, involves a reference to every district or community which may be affected,—often distant from the metropolis; and entails the necessity of reports from various quarters, which must be considered, compared, and in many instances tested by experiment, before a safe decision can be arrived at. Even then, negotiations with railway companies or coach proprietors may have to be entered into, tenders invited, new contracts made, and old contracts, requiring notice of termination, got rid of, before the decision can take effect.

Mails for small places.

2. It is often assumed that a mail conveyance, passing by or through a place, however small, ought, as a matter of course, to deposit the letters directed thereto; the practice, and the necessary practice, being that until the mail arrives at the head post office of the district the letters in question are not separated from the other letters of that district. Any other arrangement would require either that the mail conveyance, even if but a mail cart, should be converted into a travelling Post Office, and furnished with clerks of great local knowledge, or that every village in the kingdom having any correspondence with the place in question should make up a bag for that place; in which case its mail would contain nearly as many bags as letters.

Reduction of Head Offices.

3. It happens from time to time that, owing to the stream of postal communication having been diverted from the old mail road to a line of railway, or from other causes of like nature, it becomes desirable to reduce the post office of a town from the condition of a principal office to that of a sub-office. This step not unfrequently gives rise to complaints; the inhabitants being under the impression that they will not in future be so well served. This is a misconception. The change is not made when it would subject the correspondence to delay; nor does it cause any withdrawal of accommodation in respect to Money Order, Savings Bank, or other postal business. It is, in fact, simply a departmental arrangement, which consists in carrying on the sorting of the letters for the new sub-office at some intermediate office, instead of sending the letters in direct bags.

No control over Foreign Post Offices.

4. A frequent error is to assume that the Postmaster-General has some control over the delivery, charge, and other postal arrangements in the Colonies, and even in foreign countries; whereas, except at Malta and Gibraltar, the British Post Office is as powerless abroad as the Foreign, or Colonial, Post Offices are here.

No discretionary power can be given to subordinate officers to remit charges, &c.

5. Another misconception, which occasionally causes trouble and disappointment, consists in assuming that a discretionary power can be intrusted to subordinate officers to remit penalties or overcharges in special circumstances. Cases will undoubtedly occur in which strict observance of a general rule may inflict more or less injustice upon individuals, and where a dispensing power immediately at hand might furnish a remedy; but in an establishment so large and so widely spread as the Post Office there will always be many subordinate officers, some of them carrying on their duties beyond the easy reach of any supervising authority, who are not fit depositaries of such a power, affecting, as it would, to a great degree, the public revenue. It therefore becomes necessary to lay down definite and precise rules from which no departure can be allowed, except under sanction of the Postmaster-General; while in the few instances in which these rules press hardly, appeal can be made to the General Post Office. It may be added, that in many instances even such appeal is necessarily fruitless, the Postmaster-General being bound to a particular course by positive law.

XXVII.—REGULATIONS RELATING SPECIALLY TO THE LONDON DISTRICT.

Postal Districts.

1. London and its environs are divided into Eight Postal Districts, each of which is treated, in many respects, as a separate Post Town. The following are the names of the Districts, with their abbreviations, viz. :—

Eastern Central	E.C.	South Eastern	S.E.
Eastern	E.	South Western	S.W.
Northern	N.	Western	W.
North Western	N.W.	Western Central	W.C.

2. By the addition of the initials of the Postal District to the address of a letter for London or its neighbourhood, increased security is afforded against mis-delivery or delay, and the work of the Post Office is facilitated.

3. The District initials for every important street or place are given in the Street List at pages 180 to 224.

Town Deliveries.

4. The portion of each District within about 3 miles of the General Post Office is designated the Town Delivery, and the remainder the Suburban Delivery.

5. Within the limits of the Eastern Central District there are daily twelve deliveries, and within the Town limits of the other Districts eleven deliveries :—The First, or General Post delivery, including all Inland, Colonial, and Foreign letters arriving in sufficient time, commences about 7.30 A.M., and, except on Mondays, or on other days when there are large arrivals of letters from abroad, is generally completed, throughout London, by 9 o'clock. In the Eastern Central District the second delivery begins at about 8.40 A.M., and includes the correspondence received by Night Mail from Ireland and by the North Mails arriving at 6.40 and 8.0 A.M.; and the third delivery in this District, corresponding with the second delivery in other districts, is made at about 10 A.M., and includes the letters collected in London generally at 8.45 A.M., and the correspondence by the Scotch Mail arriving about 9 A.M. The next nine deliveries are made in every District hourly, and include all letters reaching the General Post Office, or the District Offices in time for each despatch. The last delivery, extending to all the Districts, begins at about 7.45 P.M.

6. Each delivery within the Town limits occupies about an hour.

7. The Provincial Day Mails are due at various times, and the letters are included in the next Delivery after their arrival in London. The Day Mails from Ireland, France, and the Continent generally, and the letters received from Brighton and other towns which have a late afternoon communication with London, are delivered the same evening in London and in the Suburbs within the six-mile circle. (For number of Mails between Provincial Post Towns and London, see page 125.)

Suburban Deliveries.

8. There are six despatches daily to the Suburban Districts. The first (at 6.30 A.M.) is to all places within the London District; and includes the correspondence by the Night Mails from the Provinces, and by any Colonial or Foreign Mails arriving in sufficient time. This delivery is generally completed in the nearer Suburbs by 9 A.M., and at the more distant between 9 and 10 A.M. The second despatch (at 9.30 A.M.) is to the nearer Suburban Districts only. The third despatch (at 11.30 A.M.) comprises, with a few exceptions, every part of the London District. Except to isolated places, the fourth despatch (at 2.30 P.M.) is to most of the Suburban Districts. The fifth despatch (at 4.30 P.M.) extends to the whole of the Suburban Districts; and, except in the remoter rural places, the letters are delivered the same evening. The sixth despatch is at 7 P.M. Letters for this despatch posted at the Town Receiving Houses and Pillar Boxes by 6 P.M., or at the Chief Office of the District to which they are addressed by 7.30 P.M., are delivered the same evening; except at a few distant places, where the delivery is made early the following morning.

9. The deliveries in the Suburban Districts begin from one to two hours after the stated time of despatch; according to the distance from London; the deliveries in rural parts of the remoter Suburban Districts being necessarily fewer than in the towns and villages.

Collections from the Town and Suburban Receiving Houses, &c.

10. The latest times for posting letters at the Chief and District Offices, and at the Receiving Houses and Pillar Letter Boxes, for the London and Suburban despatches, and for the Inland, Colonial, and Foreign Mails, are fully stated in the Tables at pages 130 to 174. It is requested that all letters may be posted as early as possible.

11. Letters brought to the Receiving Houses after the fixed time of posting has expired cannot be forwarded till the next despatch; and the Receivers and Letter-carriers are strictly forbidden to receive a fee for including such letters in the collection. Provided, however, that they be not detained, and their duty thereby impeded, Letter-carriers in the Suburban Districts are permitted to take charge of letters to be posted on their route.

12. As a general rule the number of despatches from any place is the same as the number of deliveries there.

13. At the District Offices, and at the Town Receiving Houses, separate boxes are provided for "London District" and "General Post" letters; and the public will much facilitate postal business by taking care to post their letters in accordance with the inscription on each box. For the convenience of persons intrusting their letters to servants or children to post, the inscription on the "London District" box is in red letters, and that on the "General Post" box in black letters, so that the most illiterate person can be instructed in which of the boxes to deposit any letter. In the Town Districts generally, and in certain Suburbs where there is a collection from the Pillar Boxes at 3 or 4 A.M. (see pages 130 to 174), the Receiving Office Letter Boxes are closed during the night and on Sundays, in order that letters may not be posted there, but in the Pillar Boxes, and so have the advantage of such early collection.

Night Mails from London.

14. These Mails leave the General Post Office at 8 P.M., and (with one or two exceptions) arrive at all important towns in England and Wales in time for a Morning delivery, beginning before 9 o'clock.

The arrival at Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Dublin is also in time for a similar delivery

For times of posting for these Mails, see Tables given under each District, pages 130 to 174.

22. For the Night Mails, the latest time for registering both inland and foreign and colonial letters at the Chief Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, and at the Head District Offices and Post Offices at Lombard Street, Gracechurch Street, and Charing Cross, on payment of the ordinary fee of 4*d.*, is 5.30 P.M.; or, on payment of a late fee of 4*d.* in addition to the registration fee, the latest time is 6 P.M., and at the Chief Office only, between 6 and 6.30 P.M. on payment of a late fee of 1*s.*, between 6.30 and 7.30 P.M. for Foreign Mails and between 6.30 and 7.45 P.M. for Inland Mails, on payment of a late fee of 2*s.* 6*d.* in addition to the ordinary fee and postage. Letters "to be called for."

Poste Restante at General Post Office and Charing Cross, and at Woolwich.

Hours of attendance.

Letters not taken in at other district offices.

26. There is a Poste Restante both at the General Post Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, and at the Charing Cross Post Office, where letters "to be called for" can be obtained between the hours of 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. There is also a Poste Restante at Woolwich, available during the ordinary hours of business. No letters (except communications from the Savings Bank Department) are taken in "to be called for" at the other District or Branch Offices, and any so directed are sent to the Returned Letter Office to be returned to the writers.

Poste Restante not intended for residents.

Privilege only granted for two months.

27. The Poste Restante being intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers who have no permanent abode in London, letters for residents must not be addressed to the Post Office "to be called for;" and any letters for a resident so addressed, although delivered at the Post Office for one week, are, after that time, sent out by the Letter-carriers. Even strangers are not, as a rule, allowed to use the Poste Restante for more than two months; at the end of which time they are expected to have their letters sent to a private address.

[illegible] and [illegible]

28. Letters addressed to initials or to fictitious names at the Poste Restante are not taken in, but are at once sent back to the writers.

29. Letters may not be re-directed from a private address to the Poste Restante. Private address: letters cannot be re-directed from.

30. Letters intended to be called for at the General Post Office should have the words "to be called for" added to the address; otherwise such letters are sent round, in the first instance, to the several departments of the General Post Office, to ascertain whether they are intended for any of the officers, and therefore may not be at hand when applied for. Should be addressed "To be called for."

31. All persons applying for letters at the Poste Restante must be prepared to give the necessary particulars to the clerk on duty, to prevent mistakes and to ensure the delivery of the letters to the persons to whom they properly belong. If the letters be for a subject of the United Kingdom he must be able to state from what place or district he expects them, and must produce some proof of identification; and if he send for his letters, the messenger, besides being furnished with this information, must have a written authority to receive them. If the applicant be a foreigner he must produce his passport; or if he send for his letters the messenger must produce it. Subjects, however, of States not issuing passports, are treated as subjects of the United Kingdom. Particulars required.

32. Letters from abroad addressed to the Poste Restante, London, are retained for two months. Letters from provincial towns similarly addressed are retained one month, and letters posted in London one fortnight; all such letters, at the end of these periods, being sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal in the usual manner. Letters how long kept.

33. None of the Letter Receivers in the London District are required to take charge of letters to be called for; and all newly appointed Letter Receivers are forbidden to do so. Those who have been for some time in the service are for the present permitted to take in such letters (charging a fee for the accommodation), provided that the letters are addressed "Post Office," and that the persons seeking such accommodation are known to them or have previously made a like application, and that the Receiver is satisfied that proper use will be made of the privilege. When, however, letters for strangers are presented without the Receiver's consent having been first obtained, or, when there is reason to suspect that the Receiving House is being made to serve improper ends, the Receiver is instructed to refuse to take them in. Letters may not be re-directed from the Poste Restante to a Receiving House, or from one Receiving House to another in the London District. Letters to be called for at Receiving Houses.

Private Letter Boxes.

34. Private letter boxes may be rented at the window of the General Post Office, at the Lombard Street Branch Office, and at any District Office. The charge for a private box is 3*l.* a year, payable in advance; and no box can be rented for less than a year. Private box holders can obtain their letters between 7.30 A.M. and 7.45 P.M.

Overcharged Letters.

35. Overcharges are returned between the hours of 10 and 4, on presenting the overcharged letters at the office for the sale of stamps, &c. at the General Post Office. Or the letter may be sent to the office by the Letter-carrier of the District.

Hours of Attendance.

36. Postage stamps and stamped envelopes are sold at the Chief Office between the hours of 6.45 A.M. and 7.30 P.M.; at Lombard Street and at the Western District Office between 7 A.M. and 7.30 P.M.; at the other District Offices and the Charing Cross Post Office between 8 A.M. and 7.30 P.M.; and at the Gracechurch Street Post Office, the Branch Offices, and Receiving Houses between 8 A.M. and 8 P.M.

37. Business relating to Money Orders, Savings Banks, &c. is transacted at the Chief District Offices, and at the Post Offices in Lombard Street, Gracechurch Street, and at Charing Cross, between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M.; except on Saturdays, when such business ceases at 1 P.M. At Branch Offices and Receiving Houses in the Town Districts the time is between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M.; at Branch Offices in the Western Suburban Districts between 10 A.M. and 5 P.M., and in other Suburban Districts between 9.30 A.M. and 5 P.M.; and at Receiving Houses in the Suburban Districts between 9 A.M. and 6 P.M. Although, however, general Savings Bank business ceases at the hours named, yet Savings Bank Deposits are received at District and Branch Offices until 8 P.M. on Saturdays, and at Receiving Houses, as a rule, both on Fridays and Saturdays until 7 P.M.

Sunday.

38. All Post Offices in the London District are closed on Sundays with the exception of those mentioned at pages 35 and 36, which are open for the receipt and despatch of telegrams during the hours stated on those pages. Letters, however, posted in London before 9 P.M. on Saturday are forwarded to the travelling post offices, and reach their several destinations in time for delivery on Monday morning. Letters posted in the Pillar Boxes within the Town limits, and in some of the nearer Suburbs, on Sundays, are collected early on Monday morning in time for all the Morning Mails, and for the first London District delivery.

OTHER BRANCHES OF POSTAL BUSINESS.

XXVIII.—POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

Tariff for inland telegrams.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom, excepting the Scilly Islands, is 1*s.* for the first 20 words, and 3*d.* for every additional five words, i.e., for every additional group of not more than five words*; the names and addresses of the sender and receiver not being counted.

Tariff for the Scilly Isles.

2. The charge for five words or less (exclusive of the address, which is not charged for unless it exceeds 10 words, in which case 6*d.* is charged for every extra word above 10) to the Scilly Islands is 2*s.* 6*d.*, plus the ordinary inland rate; each additional word being charged 6*d.*

Tariff for press telegrams.

3. The charges for press telegrams are 1*s.* for every 100 words or portion of 100 words handed in between the hours of 6 p.m. and 9 a.m.; and 1*s.* for every 75 words or portion of 75 words handed in between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.; with an additional charge of 2*d.* per 100 or 2*d.* per 75 words, as the case may be, for the same telegram to every additional address.

Telegraph stamps.

4. Distinctive telegraph stamps are issued for the payment of the charges on telegrams. Postage stamps are not accepted in payment of telegrams, nor are telegraph stamps accepted in payment of postage. Telegraph stamps are not purchased from the public at Post Offices, nor can they be exchanged for postage stamps.

Receipts.

5. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2*d.* each.

Telegram forms.

6. The inland telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the "A 1" form, embossed with a stamp of the value of 1*s.*, and the "A" form (given gratis), with no stamp embossed thereon. The "A 1 forms" may be purchased singly or in any number. They may also be had bound up into books of 20 forms; price 1*l.* 0*s.* 2*d.*

Free delivery.

7. When the terminal telegraph office, i.e., the office situated nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission of a message covers the cost of delivery within the town postal delivery of that office. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within the limit of one mile.

Porterage beyond delivery.

8. When the addressee resides beyond the above-described limits, porterage is charged at the rate of 6*d.* per double mile (that is, a mile out and a mile back), or any part thereof, provided the whole distance to be traversed does not exceed three miles out and three miles back; but the charge is calculated from the boundary of the district within which no porterage is levied. For instance, if the addressee's residence is a mile and a quarter from the terminal telegraph office, and also beyond the free delivery, the charge for porterage would be 6*d.*; if the distance is above two miles and under three, 1*s.*

* A similar interpretation is to be put upon the phrase "every additional — words," wherever such phrase occurs.

9. If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal telegraph office, porterage is charged, for delivery by mounted messenger, at the rate of 1*s.* per mile (except in Ireland, where the charge usually is only 8*d.* per double mile), the charge being reckoned from the office door. Delivery by mounted messenger.

10. The sum paid by the sender for delivery by special foot messenger, or by mounted messenger, is always telegraphed to the terminal telegraph office; and should the sender have undercalculated the distance over which the message has to be carried by special foot or mounted messenger, the deficiency is charged on delivery. Deficiency charged against addressee.

11. If, on the contrary, the sender has paid too much, the excess, on application to the Secretary, is refunded to him. Excess refunded to sender.

12. If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal telegraph office he must write the words "by post" or "by train" at the end of the address of the person to whom it is to be sent. Delivery by post or train.

13. A deposit of 5*s.* is required upon all telegrams addressed to persons on board ship (unless the ship be lying in the dock) to cover any expense incurred in their delivery; but application can be made to the Secretary for any surplus. Telegrams for ships.

14. Extra charges for words beyond the number allowed for 1*s.* must be prepaid by stamps affixed to the telegram form; and the extra charge for porterage, when any has to be paid, should also, as far as possible, be prepaid. Extra charges and porterage.

15. In order that the charges for porterage may be properly assessed, the senders are expected to state, as accurately as possible, the distance at which the addressees live from the terminal telegraph office. Sender to state distance.

16. An embossed stamp which has been removed from a spoiled and unused "A 1" form will be accepted in payment of a telegram; but mutilated or defaced stamps will not. Embossed stamps removed from "A 1" form.

17. The sender should always furnish his address, not necessarily for transmission, but in order to enable the Department to communicate with him should such a course be necessary. When the senders of messages do not reside in the town from which they forward their telegrams they should furnish their permanent address on the telegram form. Sender should give his address.

18. Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, if he desires to adopt this extra security against risk of error, by being signalled back from each office at which they are received to the office from which they are forwarded. The charge for repetition is one half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence. Repetition of telegrams.

19. Telegrams written in cipher, or according to a preconcerted code, should always be repeated. Cipher telegrams must be repeated.

20. If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should turn out that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. Telegrams repeated half cost.

21. The cost of a reply to a telegram may be prepaid; and a Prepaid Reply Pass will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any Telegraph Office, at any time within two months after the date of the original telegram. If the pass be not used, application for the return of the money, accompanied by the Prepaid Reply Pass, may be made, by the holder, to the Secretary, General Post Office, London. A Prepaid Reply Pass, however, need not necessarily be used for the reply to a message, but may be used for the purpose of prepaying a message containing the same number of words as that named on the pass. Prepaid replies.

22. All telegrams which are re-transmitted to a second address by wire are liable to an additional charge at the ordinary Inland rate. Telegrams Re-direction of telegrams.

which are redirected to a second address in the same locality or free delivery will not be surcharged for the second service, if the re-direction does not involve any use of the wires, and the re-transmission is owing to a change of residence; but if the re-transmission is from a business address to a private address, after office hours, then, although no fresh use of the wires may be involved, a fixed charge of 1*s.* will be made.

Copies of telegrams delivered to several persons.

23. Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered separately at an additional charge of threepence per copy. The London Postal Districts, however, will not be regarded, for this purpose, as together forming one free delivery; each Postal District being treated separately.

Telegrams can be posted.

24. Persons who wish to avoid sending so far as to a Telegraph Office may, without additional charge, post a telegram form enclosed in an envelope addressed "Telegraph Office," in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a Receiving Office or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest Telegraph Office by the first collection from the letter-box in which they are deposited, are thence transmitted by wire as soon as possible, and are delivered to the addressee free of extra charge, provided the proper amounts for the number of words contained in them, and for porterage when they have to be delivered beyond the limits of the free delivery, have been prepaid. The period of arrival at the Telegraph Office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

25. Telegrams so posted, but insufficiently prepaid, are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

26. Most of the Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom are closed between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.; and as time is required for transmission between office and office, it must be borne in mind that if a telegram be deposited in a box at such a time that it cannot reach a Telegraph Office before 7 p.m., it may not reach its destination until after 8 a.m. on the following day.

27. Postmasters are allowed to accept telegrams after the usual hours on payment of certain fees, according to an authorized scale, provided that the terminal Telegraph Office is open, or, that the attention of that office can be gained.

28. Telegrams written on the proper forms and properly prepaid may be handed to Rural Messengers who are proceeding to Telegraph Offices for transmission therefrom.

29. Telegrams written in plain language in any European tongue are charged for according to the number of words they contain; but all unintelligible words not forming part of any European language are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

30. No combination of two or more words is counted as one word, with the exception of those words which are ordinarily written as one, or coupled by hyphens, such as "mother-in-law," "non-delivery," "sub-lieutenant," "alms-houses," "O'Niel," "MacDonald," "Newcastle-on-Tyne," &c.

31. The following exceptional compound words are charged for as one word:—

Midday.	To-day.	Halfpenny.
Midnight.	To-night.	Twopence,
Noonday.	To-morrow.	Threepence,
Se'nnight.	Yesternight.	and so on.
Cannot.	Yesterday.

32. Abbreviations of auxiliary verbs designated by apostrophes (such as can't, won't, don't, I'll, you'll, couldn't, shouldn't, &c.) are charged for as one word. By writing words in this way, however, there is a greater risk of error.

33. Numbers expressed in figures in an inland telegram are counted as so many words, according to the number of figures employed. For example, "7" counts as one word, "12" as two words, "385" as three words; and so on. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed to express the quantity, one word being added for the bar or mark of division between the numerator and denominator—thus, "$\frac{1}{8}$" counts as three words, "$\frac{3}{4}$" as three words, "$109\frac{7}{8}$" as six words.

34. The initial letters denoting the several London Postal Districts are each charged as one word; for instance, "S.W." is counted as two words. District initials.

35. All names are charged as compound words if composed of more than one word. For example, "City of Brooklyn" is charged as three words; "New Orleans," two words; "Park Lane," two words. Names.

36. When the sender of a telegram desires words to be underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for. Parentheses, &c.

37. When the sender of a telegram desires that special instructions, such as "private," "confidential," "to be opened at once," or the like, shall be written on the envelope containing the copy of the message which is to be delivered to the addressee, he must write the instructions on the form immediately after the address of the person to whom the message is sent. These instructions are charged for as part of the message. "Private," "confidential," &c. on envelope of message.

38. The full address at which telegrams reaching London from provincial towns or from abroad, and marked with an abbreviated or arbitrary address, are to be delivered, can be registered at the General Post Office on payment of an annual fee of one guinea. Registration of addresses.

39. The sender of a telegram, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown at the address furnished, must, should he desire to furnish a corrected address, pay the cost of a fresh telegram. Sender must pay for a fresh message if sent to a second address.

40. When telegrams are addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for, they are kept for two clear days; and, if no application be made for them within that time, are sent to the Chief Office, London. Messages "To be called for."

41. Telegrams for the re-direction of letters are accepted at the ordinary rate of charge; but the sender must append his signature to the telegram, otherwise it cannot be acted upon. Re-direction of letters by telegraph.

42. Telegrams which are indecently or obscenely worded, or which appear to contain abusive, libellous, or slanderous matter, will not be transmitted. Indecent or libellous telegrams.

43. The Department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams. Non-liability of Post Office.

44. Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on week days, and from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open for longer periods; and at the following offices in London and in the country there is attendance continuously during the day and night, both on week days and Sundays. Hours of attendance.

Private Wires.

Private wires.

45. The Department undertakes to construct and afterwards maintain, upon the payment of an annual rental, at the rates specified in Tables A. and B., a line of private wire between the place of business or residence of a firm or private individual and a Postal Telegraph Office, or between two or more places of business or residences; except where it may be desired to have a line of private telegraph between two towns which are connected by means of the public postal wires. In such cases the Department provides a line of private wire at each town between the place of business and the Head Postal Telegraph Office at the ordinary rental according to Tables A. and B., with an extra payment for clerks' services: see "a." under heading "C. Regulations and Conditions;" the service between the two towns being performed over the public wires at the ordinary charge for inland telegrams.

Time signals.

46. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current every hour in the day in London, and at either 10 or 1 o'clock to places in the country at the rates set forth in Table D.

Applications: how to be made.

47. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Surveyor of Private Wires, Telegraph Street, London, E.C."

C.—Regulations and Conditions.

a. An Instrument in a Postal Telegraph Office.—For desk accommodation and clerk's services, 5*l.* 5*s.* per annum; or if required at two different towns, a combined charge of 8*l.* 8*s.*

b. Delivery of Local Messages.—A charge of 3*d.* each is made upon messages sent over a private wire and intended to be delivered within the local free delivery; beyond that boundary the ordinary rates for delivery are charged. Local messages to the renter are sent over the private wire free.

c. Extension of an Existing Line.—If the extension would increase the rental, the cost is borne by the Department; if not, it is borne by the renter.

d. Maintenance of Lines and Apparatus not the Property of the Department will be undertaken for any period of not less than one year; the annual charge is calculated at 1*l.* less, per mile, than the rates set forth above under "wire rental scale," and at reduced charges for apparatus, (see Table B.,) but the line and apparatus must be put into thorough order by the proprietor at his own expense before the Department will undertake to maintain them. The Department cannot allow the erection on its poles of a wire not belonging to it.

e. Agreement.—A simple form of agreement has been prepared and every renter will be required to sign one. This agreement, as a rule, will be determinable at three months' notice, given previous to the end of the current year's rental; or failing such notice, on payment of such sum as the Department may agree to accept in lieu thereof; but where the expense of construction is considerable, the term must not be less than from three to five or seven years; the latter period being stipulated for, when the proposed line will be in an outlying district, will be specially provided for a single renter, and it is not probable that there will be other renters.

f. Payment of Rental.—The rental is, in all cases, payable yearly, in advance.

Note.—There are other special advantages in connexion with a line of private wire led into a postal telegraph office, which can be ascertained by communicating with the "Surveyor of Private Wires."

D.—Time Signals.*

The charges for the use of wires and apparatus are as follow:

Note (a.)—Apparatus for receiving the signal must in all cases be provided by the renter.

Note (b.)—The private wire regulations c., d., e., and f., are also applicable to Time Signal agreements.

XXIX.—MONEY ORDERS.

Application forms.

1. When applying for Money Orders, the Public should use the prepared printed "Application Forms," which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices, vizt.—

1. Application for Inland Orders;
2. Application for Foreign and Colonial Orders.

Commission.

2. The commission on inland Money Orders is:—

For sums under 10*s.*	-	1*d.*	For sums of 5*l.* and under 6*l.*	-	7*d.*
" of 10*s.* and under 1*l.*	-	2*d.*	" " 6*l.* " " 7*l.*	-	8*d.*

" " 4*l.* " " 5*l.*	-	6*d.*	" " 10*l.* - -	-	1*s.*

No fractional part of a penny allowed.

3. No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

Particulars required.

4. No Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, together with the remitter's address. In the case of Foreign Orders the full address of the payee must be given; and if the Order be payable to a native in British India, the Tribe or Caste, and the Father's name, must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. When the remitter directs at the time of issue (which he is at liberty to do), that the order, by being crossed like a cheque, be made payable only through a bank, it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee.

2nd If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm is sufficient, except in the case of a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the "Carron Company."

Orders can be crossed.

5. The holder of a Money Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted; and when the order is thus presented the question put on the presentation of an ordinary Money Order is dispensed with.

Nearest Money Order Office.

6. When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid: otherwise the order can be cashed only at the Head Office. It is not incumbent on a Postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices, but the nearest Money Order Office to any street in London may be ascertained by referring to the Street List, at page 180.

Orders cannot be cancelled.

7. An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying Postmaster according to the directions in par. 16 of these regulations.

8. In order to enable the remitter to obtain an acknowledgment of the receipt of a Money Order before the Money is paid, it is arranged that he may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the Postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affix thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

9. When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank) the Postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be in agreement with the advice. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter, and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the Postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank. (See also par. 22.) Payment of Money Orders.

10. Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

11. Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained. Void Orders.

12. No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the nonpayment of a Money Order at the expected time. No compensation granted and no after payment made.

13. After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

14. To guard against any person, even if he obtain possession of a Money Order, fraudulently getting it cashed, the remitter is recommended,— Precautions to be taken with Money Orders.

1st. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.

2nd. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.

3rd. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

15. Payment of an order cannot be demanded on the same day as that on which the order was issued. Payment cannot be made on day of issue.

16. In case of the miscarriage, or loss, of an inland money order in transmission through the post, a duplicate will be granted, free of charge, on a written application, with the necessary particulars, being forwarded to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the country in which the original order was issued. Should an order be lost after the delivery of the letter in which it was enclosed, an additional commission, which should be forwarded in postage stamps together with the application for a duplicate order, will be charged. This additional commission, for duplicate of an order not exceeding 5*l.*, will be one shilling; above 5*l.* and not exceeding 10*l.*, two shillings. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission must be paid. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application, accompanied by the payment of a second commission, must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit, Duplicate orders transfers, repayments, alteration of name, &c.

in exchange, a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant and imposed on the officer in fault.

17. A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused, in consequence of the reply to the question respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order not corresponding with the entries on the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing Postmaster.

Letter Carriers, &c. not bound to procure Money Orders.

18. No Letter Carrier, Rural Messenger, or other Servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

19. Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the following colonies, British agencies, and Foreign countries* :—

Duplicate Colonial and Foreign Orders, transfers, stoppage of payment, &c.

21. The issue of a duplicate Order, or the stoppage of payment of an Order issued by a Colony on the United Kingdom will be made on application to the Controller of the Metropolitan Office of that portion of the United Kingdom in which such Colonial Order is payable, provided an additional British Inland Rate of Commission be enclosed with the application. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders (with the exception of French issues) originally drawn on their own offices.

22. Orders issued in the United Kingdom and payable in the German Empire are subject to the conditions that govern the payment of orders in that Empire. Orders issued in France on the United Kingdom cannot be paid after three months from the date of issue, without the authority of the French Post Office; and orders issued in the United Kingdom on France cannot be paid after three months from the month of issue without the authority of the Chief Office, London. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Italy and vice versâ cannot be paid after three months from the month of issue without the authority of the Chief Office of the country of issue.

* When a whole country is named, Money Orders may be drawn, as a rule, on any important town in that country, as also on the many smaller towns, of which complete lists are kept at every Money Order Office.

† Considerable variations in the rates of exchange with any foreign country may occasionally necessitate an increase, or decrease of the commission.

XXX.—POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

1. Every Post Office Savings Bank is also a Money Order Office, and is open for bank business during the same hours as for Money Orders. Deposits, however, are received, as a rule, at Town Receiving Houses in provincial towns up to a late hour on Fridays and Saturdays. (As regards the London District see paragraph 37, pages 31 and 32.) Hours of business.

2. Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, or of pounds and shillings, may be made by any person at the Post Office Savings Banks, provided that such depositor shall not make deposits amounting to more than 30*l.* in any year ending the 31st December, or make any further deposit when the amount standing in his name, exclusive of interest, exceeds 150*l.* When any Depositor's principal and interest amount together to 200*l.*, all interest will cease so long as the balance of the account continues to amount to the said sum of 200*l.* Amount of deposits.

3. On making his first deposit, every person must give his Christian and surname, state his occupation and residence, and sign the following declaration, to be witnessed by the Postmaster or by some person known to the Postmaster or by the Minister or a Churchwarden of the parish in which the Depositor dwells, or by a Justice of the Peace; and if such declaration or any part thereof shall not be true the Depositor making the same will forfeit all right to his deposits. Name, address, and occupation of Depositor to be furnished, and declaration to be made.

The book must then be given to the Depositor and kept by him as primary evidence of the receipt of the deposit. When a book is first given to a Depositor he must, in the presence of the Postmaster, sign his name in it. The amount of each deposit, with the name, occupation, and residence of the Depositor, must, upon the day of the receipt thereof, be reported to the Metropolitan Office, and an acknowledgment of such deposit will be forthwith sent by post to the Depositor as conclusive evidence of his claim to its repayment with interest thereon. If the Depositor do not receive the acknowledgment within ten days after making his deposit, he should apply for such acknowledgment to the Principal Office in London. Depositor's book to be issued. Deposits to be reported to the Postmaster-General and acknowledged

Persons by whom deposits may be made.

7. Besides ordinary persons, deposits may be made:—

(A.) By a Trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of such Trustee and the person on whose account such money shall be so deposited; but repayment of the same, or any part thereof, will not be made without the receipts of both parties. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.

(B.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf, provided neither of them is already a depositor.

(C.) By any person under 21 years of age or for his benefit; and repayment will be made to such minor, if more than 7 years old, as if he were of full age.

Such Societies, &c. are allowed to invest considerably beyond the usual limit, or even without restriction as to amount; according to circumstances.

(E.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 24th section of the Act 30 & 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), "trust moneys" not in excess of 500*l.* may be thus deposited; and under the 26th section, money paid into a County Court in "equitable proceedings" may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

As to repayment of deposits made by married women.

8. Deposits made in Scotland by a married woman, or by a woman afterwards married, will be repaid to her unless her husband shall give notice, in writing, to the Postmaster-General requiring payment to be made to him. This rule applies also to deposits made in England or Ireland before the 9th of August 1870; from which day, by the passing of the Married Women's Property Act, all deposits made in England or Ireland by a married woman, or by a woman who may afterwards marry (unless the money belong to her husband and be deposited without his consent), are the separate and uncontrolled property of the woman.

Depositor's book to be sent once a year to Principal office.

9. The Depositor's book must be forwarded once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, to the principal office in a cover (to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank), in order that the entries may be compared with the entries in the books of the Postmaster-General, and the interest due to the Depositor inserted in it.

No charge for book at first supplied. Charge for duplicate book.

10. No charge will be made for the books at first supplied to Depositors, or for books issued to them in continuation thereof; but if any Depositor shall lose his book, and shall desire a new book, application must be made by him to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department by letter, stating the circumstances, and enclosing Postage Stamps of the value of one shilling to pay for the new book should the application be granted.

No postage charged for transit of books, &c.

11. No charge for Postage will be made to Depositors for the transmission of their books to the Principal Office, or for the return thereof to them, or for any applications they may have to make for acknowledgments of deposits, or for any application or necessary letter of inquiry respecting the sums deposited by them, or for the replies thereto.

Transfer of deposits.

12. A Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank may transfer his deposits to any other Savings Bank legally established; and, on his written application, accompanied by his book, to the Chief Office of the Postmaster-General, in a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, he will be furnished with a certificate of the whole amount due to him; and his account with the Post Office Savings Bank will thereupon be closed. A Depositor in any legally established Savings Bank may transfer his account to the Post Office Savings Bank, and may require from the trustees or managers of such bank a certificate, stating the amount due to him; and thereupon his account with such bank will be closed. The certificate may be delivered at any Post Office Savings Bank, and will be received as a deposit of the amount therein set forth; and on the certificate being forwarded to London, and verified by the National Debt Commissioners, an acknowledgment for the amount will be sent to the Depositor.

Withdrawals of deposits.

13. Any Depositor wishing to withdraw the sum deposited by him, or part thereof, must make application for the same in a Form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. In this Form the Depositor must give the Particulars therein required; and on receipt of it at the General Post Office in London, a warrant for the amount required, payable at the office named by the Depositor, will be sent to him by post. This warrant must be presented by the Depositor at the Post Office named thereon, together with the Depositor's book, in which the Postmaster will enter the amount repaid, and attest the entry with his signature and the dated stamp of his office. The Postmaster will take from the Depositor a receipt (not chargeable with stamp duty) on the warrant for the amount repaid to him. The Postmaster-General will endeavour to prevent fraud, and to identify every Depositor transacting business with the Post Office Savings Bank; but if any person shall obtain possession of a Depositor's book and then fraudulently represent himself to be the Depositor, and by forwarding the proper notice of withdrawal, and by presentation of the Depositor's book, and compliance with the Rules of the Department, shall obtain any sum of money belonging to that Depositor, the Postmaster-General will not be responsible for the loss thereof.

Repayments.

14. Repayments are made only to the Depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the Minister or a Churchwarden of the parish in which the Depositor resides, of a Justice of the Peace, or, in case of sickness, of the Medical Attendant. If the Depositor be resident abroad, the signature must be verified by some constituted authority of the place in which he resides. A Form of Order, to be signed by the Depositor on such occasions, may be obtained at the Post Office at which the warrant is made payable. Money invested under the Act 30 & 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), in the name of the Registrar of a County Court, can only be withdrawn upon authority addressed to the Postmaster-General by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Funds of deceased depositors not exceeding 50*l*.

15. In case any Depositor shall die leaving any sum of money not exceeding 50*l*., exclusive of interest, deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank, and Probate of his Will, or Letters of Administration, be not produced, or if notice in writing of the existence of a Will, and intention to prove the same, or to take out Letters of Administration, be not given at the Principal Office within one month from the Death of the Depositor; or if such notice be given, but such Will be not proved, or Letters of Administration be not taken out, and the Probate or Letters of Administration (as the case may be) produced to the Postmaster-General within two months from the death of the Depositor, it will be lawful for the Postmaster-General, after such period of one or two months, as the case may be, to pay and divide such funds at his discretion to or amongst the widow or relatives of the deceased Depositor or any one or more of them; or, if he shall think proper, according to the Statute of Distributions. Note.—A form for making application on the subject may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

16. In case any depositor shall die leaving any sum of money in the Post Office Savings Bank which (exclusive of interest) shall exceed the sum of Fifty Pounds, the same will only be paid to the Executor or Administrator on the production of the Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Estate or Effects of the deceased Depositor.

Payment on death of a Depositor being illegitimate and dying intestate.

17. If any Depositor, being illegitimate, shall die intestate, leaving any person or persons, who but for the illegitimacy of such Depositor, and of such person or persons, would be entitled to the money due to such deceased Depositor, it will be lawful for the Postmaster-General, with the authority in writing of the Barrister-at-law appointed to certify the Rules of Savings Banks, to pay the money of such deceased Depositor to any one or more of the persons who in his opinion would have been entitled to the same according to the Statute of Distributions if the said Depositor had been legitimate.

Incapacitated Depositors.

18. If any Depositor shall become insane, or otherwise incapacitated to act, and the same shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, then the Postmaster-General, if he shall be satisfied of the urgency of the case, may authorize payment, from time to time, out of the funds of such Depositor to any person whom he shall judge proper to receive it.

Settlement of disputes.

19. If any dispute shall arise between the Postmaster-General and any Depositor, or any executor, administrator, next of kin, or creditor, or assignee of a Depositor who may become bankrupt or insolvent, or any person claiming to be such executor, administrator, next of kin, creditor, or assignee, or to be entitled to any money deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank, the matter in dispute must be referred, in writing, to the Barrister-at-Law appointed under the Savings Banks Acts, and whatever award shall be made by the said Barrister will be binding and final without any appeal.

Secrecy.

20. The officers of the Postmaster-General engaged in the receipt or payment of deposits are not allowed to disclose the name of any Depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn by him, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his Officers as may be appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Bank Act.

APPENDIX (G.)

PRINCIPAL STREETS, &c. IN THE LONDON DISTRICT, AND ALTERATIONS IN THE NAMES OF STREETS.

Prefixed to each Street or Place in the following List is a Reference Number corresponding with that given in the List of Money Order Offices at page 175; so that any person wishing to remit money to any place in the London District can readily ascertain on which Office the Order may conveniently be drawn.

To keep this List within convenient limits, it has been necessary to omit the names of many streets, &c. These are such as, in the address of a letter, are generally followed by another name—that of some well-known main street or road in the immediate neighbourhood, or the general name of the locality. When, therefore, a street, &c., cannot be found in the List, the Postal District to which it belongs can be ascertained by referring to the name of the neighbouring main street, or to the general name of the locality. Where the main street is in one district and certain smaller streets near to it are in another, the smaller streets themselves are inserted in the List, with the proper district initials.
